Monies paid for student kits are nonrefundable after the cancellation period. Returnable equipment must be returned within 20 days of withdrawal in their original state, no exceptions. All returned equipment will be assessed a 25% restocking fee. Unopened items from the kit can only be returned to the school if they were purchased directly from the school.

Note: The total charges for a period of attendance are equivalent to the cost of the entire program, due to the length of the program.

Please contact the school's Financial Services Leader for payment options. The school accepts credit card payments. The school does not accept cash or checks. Financial aid recipients understand that monies received on their behalf are applied first to tuition costs. The school may pass on bank fees assessed to the school over to the student for Non-Sufficient Funds, Chargebacks, Returned Items, etc.

In addition: (A) If a student payment is 10 days late, there will be a $25 late fee assessed; (B) if a student payment is 30 days late, the student will be suspended for 5 days, and upon the student's return, if the balance of missed payments is over $1,000, the student will be dropped. If the student makes written arrangements with the School to catch up on payments, the student may not be dropped. If the student doesn't follow through on the agreement, the student will be dropped; and (C) if a student has a balance of missed payments in any amount after 60 days and there is not a written agreement with the School to catch up on payments, the student will be dropped.

Financial aid available to those who qualify.

Per VA regulation, only mandatory fees may be billed to the VA. The cost of the Kit, Books and iPad, while required for enrollment, do not qualify as mandatory fees in such that the school gives students the option to purchase the kit from other sources other than the school. Students utilizing VA benefits will be responsible for arranging alternate payment for these items.

The school does not participate in any state financial aid programs.

Prices for tuition and supplies are subject to change for future start dates.

At its sole discretion, the school may adjust tuition and kit fees for students that transfer from a school that has closed without notice.
